

Some payment rates have increased from 1 July

Our payment rates increase slightly every year, in line with inflation and other factors.

Some rate changes happen on 1 April, and the rest change on 1 July.

On 1 July 2023, the following payment rates increased:

- Child Care Payments (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/for-clients/payments/payment-rates/child-care-payment-rates/>)
- Independence Allowance (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/for-clients/payments/payment-rates/independence-allowance-payment-rates/>)
- Lump Sum for Permanent Impairment (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/for-clients/payments/payment-rates/lump-sum-for-permanent-impairment-payment-rates/>)
- Survivor's Grant (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/for-clients/payments/payment-rates/survivors-grant-payment-rate/>)
- Weekly Compensation (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/for-clients/payments/payment-rates/weekly-compensation-payment-rates/>)

Date

05 July 2023

Tags

Payments \(https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/news-events/articles/?tag=59\)

Last Modified: 5 July 2023